

NEW ZEALAND - MD 202

NEW ZEALAND is an island country located in the Southwest Pacific Ocean with a population of 4.3 million residents. It is comprised of two main landmasses, i.e., the North and South Islands, and numerous smaller islands. The majority of the population is of European descent and in 1840 it became a British Colony. In 1947 New Zealand adopted the Statute of Westminster confirming that the British Parliament could no longer legislate for the country without its consent. The capital is Wellington and Lionism arrived on the scene in 1955 when the Auckland Host Lions Club was chartered.
